Kudos

For every child who feels like they are alone, The Alchemist's Heir is a friend, guide and teacher, bringing hope. Filled with a virtual toolbox of spiritual knowledge and easy to adapt techniques, kids and adults alike are empowered to go from victim to creator of their reality. I wish that I had this book when I was growing up. ~ Susan Melchione, MSW, LCSW Cary, NC

The Alchemist's Heir is a masterpiece and a must read book. John has masterfully blended scientific and spiritual material into a novel which is hard to put down once you start reading the book. This work can be classified as philosophy, psychology, alternative medicine, new age, history, science, novel, romance... It is a purely genius work of art. I highly recommend this book to the seeker who is looking for something different, exciting and one that can teach you knowledge from the masters who have preceded us. ~ Kain Samiya, Silva Master, Success Coach, and Master Hypnotist, Houston, TX

In an age when we have forgotten to teach our children to think, The Alchemist's Heir is a primer for opening young minds to imagine and question the world around them. Grandfather William shows young Tom the benefits of reprogramming emotions, observation, and research which instills confidence in a boy who has suffered from bullying. This book is a must read for parents, grandparents and educators. ~ Elissa Bentson, Forever Souls, Sarasota, FL

John has been an influential contributor to Transformation Magazine. His professional background in the medical field gives him a unique perspective on the human condition and a sense of compassion that allows him to easily bridge the gap between science and spiritual questions that are currently being pondered by our society as a whole. ~ Lisa Clift, Editor, Transformation Magazine, Sarasota, FL

✿ I.A.N.D.S. of Sarasota, a Near-Death Experience Study and Support Group, appreciates the recent excellent presentation by John Mathis at our monthly meeting. With warmth, humor and openness, he shared his personal spiritually transformative experience and very knowledgably compared it with near death experiences. We received many glowing reports from audience members. ~ Judith Snow & Linnie Sue Lanier, I.A.N.D.S., Sarasota, FL
